

Work Games: answering questions and puzzles about work, workers, and tools

- Which of the jobs depicted do you think is most interesting? _____
most fun? _____
most dangerous? _____
most difficult? _____

- Which of the jobs depicted have you seen people do?

- List jobs you know about that are not depicted.

- Match the following tools and jobs

clippers	parks worker
hammer	carpenter
cello	musician
pliers	electrical worker
trowel	bricklayer

Work Games: answering questions and puzzles about work, workers, and tools – continued

- Which of the workers depicted do you think are members of unions?
- Which words in the captions and drawings are hardest to understand? Make a list and look them up.
- Which drawings include numbers showing time, cost, location, or length?
- What words can you make by rearranging the letters in the names of different jobs? (For instance, the letters that spell TEACHER can be rearranged to make lots of other words, such as CAT, HARE, REACH, TEAR, and so on)

Work Words: finding names of occupations

Who Am I?

- I install large cable in the walls of buildings that help run computers, lights and air conditioning.

I am a _____

- I care for people when they are sick in the hospital, their home, or a health care facility.

I am a _____

- I install miles of pipe in buildings to carry water for drinking and many other uses.

I am a _____

- I carry people to their jobs and other activities throughout the community.

I am a _____

- I make knowledge and information available to my community.

I am a _____

Work Safety: matching specific jobs to specific safety gear

Look carefully at the following illustrations:

- operating engineer digging holes for concrete posts
- plumber soldering industrial pipe
- bricklayer building a wall
- electrical worker installing high voltage cables
- machinist operating a turret lathe
- iron workers repairing bridge

Circle the five items listed below that help these workers do their jobs safely:

goggles

steel-toed shoes warning sign belt gloves

tee-shirt helmet torch pipes

Work Exercise: identifying the occupation titles and roles of workers in schools

School Work

The school is a worksite. It is the one worksite you have in common and which you and your teachers and counselors know best.

(A) Place a check next to the occupation titles of all the following school workers you have seen at your school.

- | | |
|---|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Attendance Teacher | <input type="checkbox"/> Audiovisual Assistant |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Classroom Teacher | <input type="checkbox"/> Clerk |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Custodial Assistant | <input type="checkbox"/> Food Service Helper |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Guidance Counselor | <input type="checkbox"/> Librarian |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Physical Therapist | <input type="checkbox"/> School Secretary |
| <input type="checkbox"/> School Sentry | <input type="checkbox"/> School Psychologist |
| <input type="checkbox"/> School Social Worker | <input type="checkbox"/> Speech and Hearing Teacher |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Substitute Teacher | |

Work Exercise: identifying the occupation titles and roles of workers in schools – *continued

(B) Try to find those you have not seen.

(C) Identify titles of workers at your school who are not on the list above.

(D) Discuss the roles of these different school workers. How do their tasks help students and teachers?

Work Names: defining occupations identified in common last names

Many people have names that describe kinds of work. Some of these names are listed below.

Which ones do you recognize? Do any of your friends share these names?

Can you guess the occupations all these names represent?

Can you add more names to this list?

Arrowsmith _____

Farmer _____

Baker _____

Fuller _____

Barber _____

Forrester _____

Carter _____

Gardner _____

Chandler _____

Glazer _____

Clark _____

Hunter _____

Collier _____

Joiner _____

Cooper _____

Mason _____

Currier _____

Mercer _____

Draper _____

Miller _____

Work Names: defining occupations identified in common last names – *continued

Parker _____

Singer _____

Porter _____

Smith _____

Potter _____

Taylor _____

Roper _____

Turner _____

Saddler _____

Wagner _____

Sawyer _____

Wainwright _____

Shepard _____

Weaver _____

Shoemaker _____

Wright _____

Work Exercise: identifying connections among jobs

Look carefully at the following illustrations:

- restaurant workers waiting at tables
- seamstress stitching material for garment
- clerks checking out groceries at supermarket
- musicians rehearsing for symphony concert

(A) Ask yourself what other jobs have to be done in order for these workers to do their work. Match these workers to the occupations listed below:

composer _____

chef _____

weaver _____

dish washer _____

laundry worker _____ instrument maker _____ computer engineer _____ paper maker _____

Work Exercise: identifying connections among jobs – continued

(B) Choose one of the workers depicted (restaurant worker, seamstress, clerk, musician) and list all the related jobs you can think of:

Work Exercise: working alone and teamwork

Look carefully at the drawings of work in the coloring book and then list all the jobs that show:

(A) Teamwork

(B) Working Alone

Work Exercise: working alone and teamwork – continued

(C) Specific kinds of clothing or dress style

Uniforms:

Protective Gear (hard hats, goggles, vests, etc.):

Work Exercise: talking to workers about their jobs

- (A) Visit to a worksite near school — a neighborhood business, construction site, etc. — and observe the various jobs being done. Make a list of occupation titles appropriate to that worksite and then write about or discuss in class the several jobs and roles.
- (B) Visit the photo-text exhibit, Rochester: A Community of Workers (at www.rochesterlabor.org). Write about or discuss in class how workers feel about and describe their work.
- (C) Invite workers to visit the classroom and talk about their jobs. Have them describe what they do and how they feel about their work. Ask them to discuss different kinds of work and jobs at their worksites.